The gap of time between the present and “The Trip” is rapidly shrinking. In just a couple of weeks Janet and I will be experiencing the journey of a lifetime. It is difficult to imagine that we will be walking the streets of Capernaum, Bethsaida, Nazareth, Cana, Jerusalem; walking the shores of the bodies of water that are such an integral part of the Bible story: the Sea of Galilee, the Jordan River and the Dead Sea. What an experience it will be to actually walk where Jesus walked; strolling through Jerusalem, beyond the eastern gate, descending into the Kidron Valley, then actually moving about on the slope of the Mount of Olives. That alone is a longtime dream.

To visit there is a unique privilege. Israel, one of the youngest nations of the modern world is also one of the oldest with a history dating back almost 6000 years. Prior to May 14, 1948, when the people of Israel proclaimed themselves an independent republic, the Jews were scattered abroad. This scattering is referred to as the Diaspora, originally brought about by the Babylonians around 586 B.C then later reinforced by the Greeks and Romans.

Israel today is often referred to as the Holy Land because of the three major religions systems with ties to the region; Judaism, Islam and Christianity. We Christians appreciate the rich heritage of this incredible land where our Savior was born and lived during His sojourn on earth. To visit is there is a tremendous opportunity.

While we are away for ten days, we will miss only one Sunday at Valley Brook. On that day, you will be in good hands.

My friend and classmate from Luther Rice Seminary, Rob Rhew, will fill the pulpit on Sunday, May 4 and will be available for pastoral needs during my absence. I know you will enjoy and appreciate Rob.

Janet and I appreciate our church family and your prayers for an enjoyable trip and safe return.

Pastor Mike

Our suitcases are identical suitcases—all the same size—but some people can pack more into them than others.

“Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity.”
